SCHOOL BUS TRANSPORTATION INFORMATION

It is a privilege for students to ride a Jefferson County school bus, and the responsibility of both the driver and students to do everything possible to make it a safe ride. The right of a student to ride a school bus is contingent upon their continuous observance of safety rules, established regulations, and acceptable behavior.

1. The driver is in full charge of the bus and students. The driver has the right to assign seats to meet the needs of the majority of passengers. Students are responsible for the area in which they sit. Any damage to the bus will be paid for by the student(s) responsible.
2. To prevent injury to students and others, do not stick any body parts or other objects out the bus windows.
3. Students are expected to be absolutely quiet at all R.R. crossings to allow the driver full concentration to procedure and hazards.
4. Students must have written permission from parents/administrator to use a bus stop other than their regularly assigned.
5. Students must sit in the seats facing forward. Students must not block the aisles or stairwells. These areas are to remain clear in case of emergency. To prevent possible injury, students are not allowed to move around while the bus is in motion.
